WEDNESDAY, OCT. 20, 1875.
W. R. BONNER, LOCAL EDITOR.

Particular Notice.
All persons indebted to this office, will please call and pay up, as we are in urgent need of some money. We cannot run a newspaper without money, and hence we are under the necessity of collecting as fast as amounts fall due.

Special Notice
We have erased from our subscription list the names of all subscribers whose time has expired. We hope they will all renew.
We will send THE HERALD from now until the 1st of January next to any address for 40 cents.
Address, enclosing the money, with name, post-office address, county and State, legibly written.
Jno. P. Barrett & Co., Publishers, Hartford, Ky.

A Splendid Investment.
We will send the Farmers' Home Journal, price $2.00 per year, and THE HARTFORD HERALD, price $2.00 per year, to the same address for the small sum of $3.00 per year. Send on the money and get both papers.

Beach must be very scarce.
Old papers for sale at this office.
We are glad to welcome board night Mr. Marion Stetler and wife.

We hear of some little tobacco that has been frost-bitten.
Gold has been discovered in Macon county, Missouri.
Several sales of fine stock were made here last week.
Wild pigeons are beginning to make their appearance in large quantities.
Chestnuts have made their appearance in this market.

Col. C. T. Baird, of Frankfort, visited this place last week.
Have it made to order.
We mean your new suit. You can save money by going to J. Winter & Co., Louisville.

Some unknown thief robbed the Alexander House, of Louisville, of the sum of $700 and other valuables, a few nights since.
Mr. Powers, a resident of Grayson county, has a whip-saw that Abraham Lincoln used when a boy.
Now that the fair is over, what say our young people for organizing a Mite Society?
Miss Mamie, and her brother G. B.
Williams, will represent Hartford at the Callowan Fair this week.

Bricklayers are in demand in the prosperous and wide-awake little city of Owensboro.
Mr. N. C. Tifford, of the Grayson County Herald, was in town last week.
He is making the Herald a live local paper.
The "epizootic" made its appearance here last week—among fair stock, and prevented quite an amount from being exhibited.

A little row was aroused last Wednesday evening in the lower end of town, but no one received any injuries therefrom.
Mr. Robert Campbell, of the Owensboro Monitor, is announced as a candidate for Assistant Clerk of the Kentucky Senate.

Why are all the boarders at the Hartford House looking so robust and dashy? Because they are being stall fed.
Miss Betsy Andrews, the first white girl-child ever born in Frankfort, died in that city a few days ago. She was born in a house that then stood precisely where the Yonana office now stands.

There was a foot race run at the fair grounds Friday evening, the fastest runner being John Howley, running a distance of three hundred yards in 39 seconds.
We are now prepared to furnish officers with all kinds of blanks, and at prices as low as you can buy them in the cities.

Hon. J. Hop Price, Judge of the Louisville Police Court, is lying dangerously ill in that city.
When on a recent visit to the city we called at the Central House of J. Winter & Co., corner 3d and Market streets, and confess our surprise at the magnificence of the establishment, the splendid quality of the clothing and their low prices.

Miss Pradie Baird, a charming young lady of this place, has taken charge of the public school at Mt. Moriah. Miss Pradie is a lady of rare intelligence, and we feel confident will give satisfaction to her patrons.
An Owensboro negro, who was dealing in the "finny tribe" during the fair here last week, was heard auctioneering off in this style late Saturday evening:
"Now g'en men, I's offing twenty-five cents fur ten pounds of fish, and if you find one that is unaffected, I gib you de whole pile for nuffin." He wore a high top hat, and sported a gold-headed cane, and hailed from the social precinct of Beaver Dam.
If he had not squeezed that girl's hand at the fair Saturday, he wouldn't have gone home with his nose tied up. He says he once thought it was funny to squeeze a girl's hand but now he uses better.
Judge to witness: "Does the Court understand you to say that you saw the editor of the HARTFORD HERALD drunk?" "Oh, no; not at all, sir. I said I had seen him in such a confused state of mind as to try to write editorial with the paste brush, that's all."

We desire to return thanks to our correspondents for their punctuality in furnishing us with the news from various portions of the county. We expect to be absent next week, and will feel under renewed obligations if they will continue as in the past. A competent workman will be left in the office to attend to the wants of customers, and those needing job-work can have it executed in good style.

Dentistry.
Do not forget that Dr. George E.
Stowers, one of the best dentists in the State, is in town, stopping at the Hartford House. He has concluded to remain about a week longer. Those needing anything in the dental line should call immediately. His work is warranted, and at very reasonable prices.

On Wednesday morning last, Mr.
Dick Porter, a well-known farmer and stock man, residing about eight miles west of Leitchfield, on the Leitchfield and Hartford road, was found near his own residence shot through the head, with his own pistol lying close by, where the deed had been committed.
The supposition is that he suicided, although no cause can be advanced for the rash act. As yet the affair remains a complete mystery.

Disappointed.
One day last week an old gentleman from the northern portion of the county—about twenty-five miles from this place—rode all the way to town to see a "pin back," thinking it was a new feature added to the fair. But when he was informed that it was a style of dress worn by the ladies, he was heard muttering something like this as he turned on his heel in disgust: "Confound these 'femal cretters'; the next thing we hear of them doing will be their wearing of 'britches' that button up behind."

The contract for building our new jail has been awarded to Mr. Edgar Bennett, of Hardinsburg, Ky. He is to build us just such a jail as he built in Calhoun, except a little larger. It is to contain room for sixteen prisoners, and is to be complete with iron bedsteads, heating apparatus, and all, for $10,000, to be paid in Ohio county bonds, bearing seven per cent. per annum, payable within four years at the pleasure of the County Court. Mr.
Bennett arrived in this place Sunday night, and will proceed with the work in a short time.

On the 13th inst., B. B. Groom, of Thompson's Station, Ky., (which is somewhere up in the Blue Grass country), sold his Vinewood herd of Short-horn cattle at public auction.
One cow brought $17,500.00, and one bull brought $5,000.00, and the average price on seventy-three head of cattle was $1,691.00. In the name of Heaven, why don't the farmers and stock-raisers of Ohio county invest a little in fine cattle and get rid of their scrub stock? It costs about as little to raise a thoroughbred as a scrub, and when ready for market, it is worth a field full of them. If one man is not able to introduce the thoroughbreds, form an association for that purpose.

Don't Sell 'em that Way.
An old white woolled darkey, who looked as though he was one of those that had seen "General Washington" in the Revolutionary times, presented himself at the ticket office window at Beaver Dam, and sang out in a creaking voice: "I wants to git a 'cursion ticket to Leitchfield to old John Robinson's show, ef you please sah."
"Hand out your money," says Colonel Doorn. "I can git one dar and back, cant I?" "Yes," says the Colonel,
"and one that is good for three days."
"Well, I want to pay for de ticket as I can back. My son-in-law lives at Leitchfield, and he is to pay 'spenses' for me to kum and see 'em."

The Hop Wednesday Night.
A grand ball was given by Mr. E.
L. Wise at the courthouse last Wednesday night, with an attendance of about forty couples—visitors included.
Owensboro, Elizabethtown, Greenville and other neighboring towns and cities being represented. The whole assembly were in high spirits, and an enjoyable occasion it was to all. The Elizabethtown string band furnished music for the occasion, which was pronounced by all to be magnificent. The dancing commenced about 9 o'clock, and a gay time—one that will long be remembered—continued until about 3 o'clock, a. m., when the crowd began to wend their way to their several homes, to dream over the few pleasant hours that had so swiftly glided away, with the desire of mingling together in the same enjoyment before bidding adieu to our little town. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation by the manager to attend, and very much regret our inability to do so.

The Elizabethtown Brass Band.
We return our sincere thanks to the members of this band for the serenade given us last week. The music was delightful, and we have no words adequate to express our high appreciation of it, or of the elegant gentlemen who compose the band.

Elections occur this year in the following order: Virginia, Nov. 2; Maryland, Nov. 2; Kansas, Nov. 2; Massachusetts, Nov. 2; Mississippi, Nov.
2; Minnesota, Nov. 2; Missouri, Nov.
2; New York, Nov. 2; New Jersey, Nov. 2; Pennsylvania, Nov. 2; Texas, Dec. 7.

On last Monday two men traveling up the Cloverport road met two young ladies, one the daughter of J. C. Bea-son, the other the daughter of Felix Robertson. The men spoke to the young ladies and then made insulting and outrageous propositions to them, whereupon they became alarmed and fled to the school house near by where they were attending school. It is not possitive known who they are, but enough has been found out to warrant the justice of the district to issue a warrant of arrest for two men, and we hope they will be secured and severely punished.
The outrage is one of the vilest and meanest that can be conceived; no punishment in the whole catalogue found in the law books is too severe for men that attempt to decoy innocent, intelligent, virtuous young girls from the path of rectitude and accomplish their ruin.

Marriage Licenses.
The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued since our last report:
C. C. White and Miss Mary J.
Johnson.
Lucian W. Ambrose and Miss Ellen Wallace.
Felix Bolton and Miss Tobitha Curtis.
John H. Haynes and Miss Sallie Phillips.
C. S. Taylor and Miss Mary E.
Siger.
Bennett J. Petty and Miss Deborah
C. Coggage.

The Lock and Dam.
We called the attention of our readers last week to that old nuisance, the lock and dam, on Rough creek, and suggested that all the able-bodied men of this county meet there on Monday, the 25th of October, 1875, and tear it out. We suggested that J. L. Collins boss the job. We have talked with Mr. Collins since then, and he says that he and Mr. R. A. Taylor will be glad to help all they can, as leaders or otherwise. Now, let everybody turn out on that day and make a clean sweep of it, and tear it out. Don't wait for each other, but all go, and go early, and work until the nuisance is removed. It will be almost impossible to float out any saw-logs, staves, hoop-poles, or lumber this winter, unless the dam is torn out before the high water comes, for a drift will form there, the like of which was never seen in old Rough.

The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of this State, held its twelfth annual session in Louisville last week. The following officers were elected and installed for the ensuing year:
Rev. Green Clay Smith, G. W. C.
T., Frankfort.
G. W. Bain, G. W. C. Louisville.
Miss Alice Gwinn, G. W. V. T.
Hopkinsville.
N. F. Thompson, G. W. S. and T., Louisville.
T. P. Kelley, G. W. A. S. Louisville.
J. B. Green, G. W. M. Hustonville.
Miss Nora Sibly, G. W. D. M.
Sulphur.
S. N. White, G. W. Chapman.
J. S. Earleyville, G. W. I. G. Blue Lick Springs.
G. S. Black, G. W. O. G. Haynes-ville.
W. R. Barnes, G. W. Mess., Co-cord.

Below we give the list of the appointments made by the Louisville conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the Owensboro district for the ensuing year: OWENSBORO DISTRICT—E. M. CROW, P. E.
Owensboro Station—J. B. Cottrell.
Owensboro Circuit—T. G. Fallin.
Yelvington—Wilson Williams.
Calhoun—J. S. McDaniel.
Livermore—R. D. Bennett.
Hartford—W. W. Cook.
Whitesville—E. H. Morrison.
Hawesville—S. H. Lovelace.
Lewisport—J. W. Taylor.
Cromwell—Silas Newton.
Cloverport—J. S. Scobee.
Forsville Mission—Supplied by W.
F. Ford.

Bro. B. A. Condiff, our former pastor, goes to the Brandenburg circuit, and Bro. J. M. Lawson, our former presiding Elder, goes to Jefferson Street Church, Louisville, Ky. Bro. W. W.
Cook, our new pastor, has already commenced among us and preached two excellent practical sermons on last Sabbath.

Dave Woodward, of color, who lives down on the Livermore road, came here to mill on Saturday of last week.
He was detained late in getting his grist and had to go home in the night. On the way three men overtook him, and stopped him on the road near J. C. Camberlains, and would not let him go on. He asked them to let him go, as his family were sick and he was anxious to get home. They refused, and finally he determined to go on any how, and in trying to pass, one of them shot him, inflicting a flesh wound in the arm. They then bent him and tumbled him around considerably, then let him go; but soon came upon him again near Obed Chapman's and assaulted him severely. He got away from them, and took refuge in Chapman's house. They snatched their pistols at him again, and tried to shoot his dog, after which they went down the Livermore road. The negro thinks he knows who they are, and says they live in McLean county.
They should be ferreted out and severely punished for such outrageous conduct. The negro thinks they were drinking some.

Our Fair.
The eleventh annual fair of the Ohio County Agricultural and Mechanical Association commenced Tuesday of last week, and the first two days were poorly attended, but a greater amount of stock was on the ground than has been known for several fairs past. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the citizens began to feel that a good time was going on, and began to come in crowds to witness the last three days' proceedings. Just compliments were passed on the music, which was furnished by the Elizabethtown brass band, and everybody seemed sorry to see them take their leave, for the members were sociable, clever, nice gentlemen, and we think they gained the good wishes and affections of many of our fair ones.

The following named persons compose the band: Hugh M. Samuels, William Rowden, George W. Rihn, John Eckard, Herman Christen, E. R. Sweets, James M. Rihn, Charles T. Warren, William Rihn, J. A. Coons, E. B.
Wintersmith, and Thos. B. Carter.
Quite a number of visitors were in attendance, coming from all quarters, of which we would like to make personal mention, but space forbids. Splendid order was enforced during the entire fair, and intoxicated men were seldom seen. A number of amusements were on the ground, and everybody participated in their utmost financial ability.
The fair was enjoyed by all, and we extend a cordial invitation to all to meet with us again at the next annual meeting of this association.

LETTER FROM CROMWELL.
CROMWELL, KY., Oct. 10.
The readers of the HERALD are informed that the undersigned has consented to keep them posted in regard to the "doings" in and about Cromwell.
He proposes to furnish such only as he presumes they will appreciate, and that in a manner characterized by brevity and precision—at least as much of this as the matter considered will admit. He is himself fond of hearing "much in a little" and will judge his readers by himself, avoiding verbosity and redundancies to such extent as is consistent with clearness.
It is the hope, too, of the writer, that in all his reports he may preserve the amiable relations to his neighbors and friends that he now sustains.

The mercantile business in Cromwell seems to be on the increase.
Our merchants have all lately received and put up large stocks of goods, indicative of a greater circulation of money and a stronger demand for various articles of import. Our German friends, Mendel & Kahn, have purchased the largest and best assorted lot of goods in the county.
We are told that the malarial diseases which have afflicted the people here and elsewhere for some time, are abating, and the general health is improved. The physicians are still much employed, however.

Mr. Wile, of town, has a grocery house nearly completed, opposite Leach's drug store.
We saw the other day a mule wearing a yoke with the fender upwards.
It was supposed the mule was disposed, as many of its kind, to go under instead of over barriers.

No injurious freeze has yet occurred in our neighborhood, although frost has appeared on several occasions.
The weather has been clear and pleasant for some days past, except a few hours of clouds and light rain.
The tobacco crop here has pretty well matured and quite all housed.

School opened here, Monday the 2d inst. under the management of Mr.
Wellborn. The attendance has reached thirty-two. A large per cent. of the school patronage is kept at home by

SAVE YOUR EYES.

OUR PEBBLE SPECTACLES
And Eye Glasses are the best for failing sight. Cut and polished from the "Real Stone," they are perfectly transparent (will cut glass like a diamond). Being harder than the glass, they resist a fine polish and always retain it. Once put carefully suited to your eye will last as long as five pairs of the best glass, besides preserving the sight almost unimpaired all that time. By our new system for testing the sight, we are enabled to suit any eye as accurately as the most skillful optician. We repair Spectacles and Eye Glasses, and insert Pebbles or the best Glass Lenses in old frames. Our Bi-Focal Spectacles are for old people who require spectacles to see far off, as well as near by only one pair being required. To persons who cannot call on us we send our new illustrated Price List which we have in order.

We do not use to have our own trumpet as we have engaged our printer to do it for us.
The likeness is strikingly, if not entirely accurate. It will be noticed that he is having very hard, so much so that the photographer became alarmed for his personal safety, fearing that the printer might burst asunder and demolish everything within range, but the printer assured him that he could not blow on Tracy & Son's work too hard. They could stand a great deal of wind, and in that he was right. If our work will not bear examination we would not want it talked about.
